I have a school starting tomorrow! This app is perfect for me! When I can't go online because of homework, I can check the app to see what's in the item store, leaked items, and even shows when items in the item store were last released! I also like how to add the latest news in the app as well! I strongly suggest this app to anyone who loves Fortnite as much as I do, and for players who don't have enough time to go online to check out the item store! Once again... This app is amazing! This app is all you need to be. It's easy to check and scroll through today's items and even see upcoming leaked items. In addition, I like the feature where you can put a reminder for the skin, and they will tell you when it will return to the store. In general, a really good application. Everything is perfect in the app, but I recommend the clock app built into the app, so I don't have to go to the website and look at the clock there. It would be a really nice upgrade, and the website wouldn't really be used. With. Good luck. This app is helpful and really good, except the search function doesn't work for me. Also a friendly suggestion: looking through all the items can add a filter for as soon as emotki to make them easier to find and look at all of them. Overall great app tho This app is amazing, now I can check out the item store while I'm at work. It would be great if in the future he would show the latest notes and things like that.
